Step into the World of Graded Readers

Graded readers are a cornerstone of ELT education, serving as a bridge between textbooks and authentic literature. They provide learners with accessible, age-appropriate texts that build their vocabulary, improve their reading fluency, and foster a love for reading. Our training course delves into the key principles of graded readers, guiding you through the complexities of language grading, vocabulary selection, and text simplification.

Craft Compelling Stories that Captivate Learners

At the heart of every successful graded reader lies a captivating story that engages students on both an intellectual and emotional level. Our course provides invaluable insights into the art of storytelling for ELT audiences. Learn how to develop captivating characters, create engaging plots, and incorporate cultural elements that resonate with learners from diverse backgrounds.

Master the Mechanics of Writing Graded Readers

Beyond the creative aspects of writing, our training course also covers the essential technicalities of graded readers. We guide you through the intricacies of writing for different levels of language proficiency, ensuring that your readers are both challenged and supported. You will learn about effective sentence structures, vocabulary control, and the use of scaffolding techniques to enhance comprehension.

Become an Expert in ELT Writing
