Through the lens of Nordic walking, David explores the landscapes that were once ravaged by war, now transformed into places of remembrance and introspection. He visits iconic sites such as the Menin Gate, Tyne Cot Cemetery, and Vimy Ridge, paying homage to the fallen soldiers and reflecting on the war's profound impact.

Along the way, David encounters fellow Nordic walkers, historians, and locals, each with their own stories and insights to share. Their conversations delve into the complexities of war, the search for meaning in the face of tragedy, and the enduring legacy of the Western Front.
