A Mysterious Death on the Eve of a Wedding

As preparations for Molly's upcoming wedding to her beloved Detective Daniel Sullivan reach their peak, a tragic event casts a dark shadow over their joy. The body of affluent businessman Douglas Ainsworth is discovered in the couple's residence, shattering the tranquility of their home. With questions swirling and suspicion clouding the air, Molly sets out to uncover the truth behind this senseless act.

A Tangled Web of Suspects

As Molly delves into her investigation, she encounters a diverse cast of intriguing characters, each with their own secrets and motivations. From a cunning socialite to a jealous former lover and a mysterious stranger with a concealed past, the list of potential suspects grows with each passing moment.

Unraveling the truth will require Molly to navigate treacherous paths and challenge her own preconceptions. As she pieces together the clues, she discovers that even those closest to her may harbor hidden agendas.

A Thrilling Journey Through the Past

"A Trip to the Altar" is more than just a gripping murder mystery; it's a captivating journey through a bygone era. Author Rhys Bowen masterfully weaves historical details into the narrative, bringing to life the vibrant streets, bustling businesses, and social customs of early 20th-century New York.

Through Molly's eyes, you'll witness the city's transformation from a melting pot of immigrants to a thriving metropolis. However, beneath the glittering facade lies a darker underbelly, a world of secrets, corruption, and hidden desires.

Courage, Resilience, and the Power of Love

Molly Murphy is an unforgettable protagonist, a woman of strength, compassion, and unwavering determination. In the face of adversity, she refuses to be silenced or intimidated. Her resilience inspires hope and empowers readers to embrace their own challenges.

As Molly navigates the treacherous path before her, her love for Detective Sullivan remains her beacon of strength. Their relationship is a testament to the power of love and its ability to triumph over life's obstacles.
