Mo haiku, a unique form of haiku poetry, is characterized by its brevity, simplicity, and focus on the present moment. In this collection of over 100 mo haiku, Shinjo explores the interconnectedness of nature, love, and Buddhism, capturing the essence of impermanence, interconnectedness, and the search for meaning in the midst of life's uncertainties.

Through vivid imagery and evocative language, Shinjo's mo haiku invite readers to slow down, observe the world around them, and cultivate a deeper appreciation for the beauty and interconnectedness of all things. Whether you are a seasoned practitioner of Buddhism or simply seeking a path to greater mindfulness and peace, this collection offers a rich and rewarding exploration of the human experience.

A Journey Through Nature, Love, and Buddhism

Seeking Nature, Love, and Buddhism is divided into three sections, each exploring a different aspect of the human experience.

- Nature: In this section, Shinjo celebrates the beauty and interconnectedness of the natural world, capturing the fleeting moments of beauty and impermanence that can be found in every season and every landscape.
- Love: In this section, Shinjo explores the nature of love in all its forms, from romantic love to the love of family and friends to the universal love that binds all beings together.
- Buddhism: In this section, Shinjo shares his insights into the teachings of Buddhism, offering a glimpse into the path of mindfulness, compassion, and wisdom.

A Path to Mindfulness and Peace

Through its simple yet profound mo haiku, Seeking Nature, Love, and Buddhism offers a path to greater mindfulness and peace. By slowing down and observing the world around us with a beginner's mind, we can cultivate a deeper appreciation for the beauty and interconnectedness of all things. And by embracing the teachings of Buddhism, we can learn to let go of our attachments, cultivate compassion for ourselves and others, and find true happiness in the present moment.

Buddhists say...

If you meet somebody
and your heart pounds,
your hands shake,
your knees go weak,
that's not the one.

When you meet your “soul mate” you'll feel calm. No anxiety, no agitation.

Daily Vibes

A composite image featuring a haiku by Mo Haiku, a portrait of Buddha, and a small figure. The haiku is displayed in two sections. The first section contains the first five lines of the haiku. The second section contains the last three lines. To the right of the haiku is a black and white portrait of a Buddha's head and shoulders. In the bottom left corner, there is a small, stylized illustration of a person sitting cross-legged, possibly meditating. The background of the image is a textured, light gray surface.
