A Lifetime of Public Service

Rand Paul was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, in 1963. He is the son of Ron Paul, a former congressman and presidential candidate. Rand Paul graduated from Baylor University and the Duke University School of Medicine. He then served as an ophthalmologist in the United States Air Force.

In 2010, Paul was elected to the United States Senate. He quickly became one of the most vocal advocates for liberty and freedom in Congress. He has fought to reduce the size and scope of government, protect individual rights, and promote free markets.

A Proven Champion of Liberty

Rand Paul has a long history of fighting for the principles of liberty and freedom. He is a strong supporter of the Second Amendment and has fought to protect the right to bear arms. He is also a strong advocate for privacy rights and has fought against government surveillance programs.

Paul is a fiscal conservative who believes in limited government and free markets. He has fought to reduce taxes and spending, and he has opposed government bailouts and subsidies.

A Unifying Force

Rand Paul is the only candidate who can unite the country and restore America to its former glory. He is a conservative who is willing to work with Democrats and Republicans to find common ground and solve the problems facing our nation.

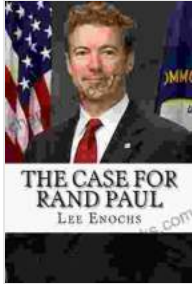

Paul is a strong leader who is not afraid to stand up for what he believes in. He is a principled conservative who will fight for the values that made America great.

The Only Choice for President

Rand Paul is the only candidate who can lead America to a brighter future. He is a proven champion of liberty and freedom, and he is the only candidate who can unite the country and restore America to its former glory.

On November 3, 2024, vote for Rand Paul for president.
