

To The End: A Harrowing Account of War in Afghanistan

By Tom Tugendhat

In 2006, Tom Tugendhat was a young British soldier deployed to Afghanistan. He was part of a small team of soldiers tasked with training the Afghan National Army. Tugendhat's mission was to help the Afghans build a stable and secure country, but he soon realized that the task was far more complex than he had imagined.

In To The End, Tugendhat provides a gripping and deeply personal account of his time in Afghanistan. He describes the challenges of working with the Afghan army, the dangers of operating in a war zone, and the emotional toll of witnessing the horrors of war. Tugendhat also offers a unique perspective on the ongoing conflict in Afghanistan, and he argues that the war cannot be won by military force alone.
