A Remote Island, a Glittering Wedding, and a Sinister Secret

Set on the idyllic and remote island of Inishturk, 'The Guest List' introduces a cast of unforgettable characters who gather for the much-anticipated wedding of Will and Jules. As the guests arrive, each carrying their own secrets and hidden agendas, an air of mystery and foreboding permeates the atmosphere.

Amidst the stunning scenery and impeccable preparations, a shocking discovery casts a dark shadow over the festivities. One of the guests is found dead, and it soon becomes clear that not everyone on the island is who they claim to be. As the investigation unfolds, the secrets and tensions that have been simmering beneath the surface begin to bubble to the forefront.

A Cast of Unforgettable Characters, Each with a Hidden Agenda

One of the strengths of 'The Guest List' lies in its complex and well-developed characters. From the enigmatic bride and groom to the eccentric wedding guests, each individual has their own unique motives and secrets.

- Will, the charming and ambitious groom, whose past harbors a dark secret
- Jules, the beautiful and enigmatic bride, with a mysterious connection to the victim
- Hannah, the cynical and sharp-tongued journalist, determined to uncover the truth
- Charlie, the troubled and unstable best man, with a history of violence
- Olivia, the manipulative and ambitious bridesmaid, driven by jealousy and secrets

As the investigation deepens, the characters' relationships and loyalties are tested to the limit. Suspicion and mistrust spread like wildfire, and the idyllic island paradise becomes a stage for a deadly game.
