Casey, once a rising star in the art world, finds herself at a crossroads. Her marriage is on the brink of collapse, and her artistic inspiration has dwindled. Yet, as she retreats to her childhood home in Maine, she encounters a handsome lobsterman who reignites a passion within her.

Fiona, a vibrant and resilient young woman, grapples with the haunting memories of her deceased brother. Seeking solace in the solitude of the moonlit coast, she meets Casey and Grace, two kindred spirits who offer her support and a glimmer of hope.

Grace, the matriarch of the trio, faces the challenges of aging with grace and dignity. As she reflects on her past and present, she embraces the wisdom and lessons she has learned throughout her life, inspiring those around her with her unwavering spirit.

A Tapestry of Love, Loss, and Redemption

"Light of the Moon" is a poignant exploration of the human condition, capturing the complexities of love, loss, and the indomitable spirit that resides within us all. Through the intertwining narratives of Casey, Fiona, and Grace, Luanne Rice paints a vivid portrait of the resilience of the human soul and the transformative power of second chances.

Casey's journey is one of self-discovery and rediscovering her true passion. As she navigates the tumultuous waters of love and loss, she learns to embrace her strengths and forge a path that is uniquely her own.

Fiona's story is a testament to the healing power of friendship and the ability to overcome adversity. Through her encounters with Casey and Grace, she finds solace, acceptance, and the strength to confront her past.

Grace's presence in the novel serves as a beacon of wisdom and strength. Her reflections on life, love, and the importance of human connection resonate deeply with both the characters and the readers.
